

Details of the Step into Sport Event Tuesday 31 March, 2020

What is the event?

- Focus on the development of leadership skills in young people (including those with SEND), with an increased emphasis on further training and deployment opportunities in workforce specific roles
- Along with their personal development, the new skills will support the Young Leaders develop more opportunities for all pupils (including those with SEND) to engage in school sports activities (clubs) and competition within their school.
- There are four parts of the event, these are;
 - Session 1 – Skills & Qualities of a Role Model/Leader
 - Session 2 – Introduction to STEP
 - Session 3 - Delivering engaging activity and competition
 - Session 4 – Action Planning
- The workshops are designed to be interactive, learner centred and enables young people to share ideas, develop skills and knowledge and have some fun in a practical setting.
- The event will be co - delivered by Craig McCann (Athlete Mentors), alongside two Young Role Models.

Who is the event for?

- 10 young people per school aged 13 – 16
- Minimum 50% young people with SEND – the day should include young people with and without SEND.
- Young leaders with the potential to lead and facilitate activities to other Young People, Young People aspiring to develop in Workforce specific roles (Coach/Official/Event Volunteer – focus of content is on the first two)

When is the event?

- Tuesday 31 March, 2020
- 10:00am until 2.00pm

Where is the event?

- Sportcity Indoor Track
Gate 13, Rowsley Street
Manchester
M11 3FF

How do I enter?

- Please complete the event registration form on the reverse and email this directly to David Butterworth David.Butterworth@Redwood-school.com

